NOTICE

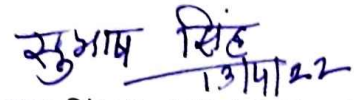

Out of 06 (six) seats reserved for Central Govt. Nominee Candidates at NIH, Kolkata (as per the Ministry Letter No. vide F. No. Y.11030/10/2020-EP(III) dated 02/06/2020 and dated 04/01/2021) 03 (three) seats are already allotted for the Session 2021 - 24. They have been allotted in the Department Practice of Medicine, Organon of Medicine and Materia Medica as per their preference. So only (03) three seats (01) one in each subjects of Paediatrics, Homoeopathic Pharmacy and Repertory are laying vacant for Private CGN candidates.

The list of students with their details who have applied within the stipulated date i.e. 22nd March, 2022 for the remaining 03 (three) seats under Central Govt. Nominee Category, nominated by their respective deficient States in the subject concerned in order of merit as per AIAPGET is hereby published for all concerned.

Those candidates whose name is mentioned in the three Ineligible Lists published by AACCC are not eligible for such nominations.

So, only 03 (three) students in order of merit and their eligibility as per the deficient status of the state to which the students belong may report to NIH on 21st April, 2021 (Thursday) positively by 01:00 P.M. Failing which seats will be allotted to the next candidate in order of merit and availability of subjects as per deficient status of the state concerned. Please visit www.nih.nic.in for list of documents to be produced at the time of admission from the M.D.(Hom.) prospectus for the Session 2021-24, Batch 23rd.

Many candidates have submitted their nominations without mentioning the subject wise deficiency status. So they are requested to bring the same at the time of admission failing which their claim cannot be entertained. Only merit does not ensure admission. The candidate has to submit the deficiency certificate from the competent authority at the time of admission. No Nominee/Candidate will be provided admission in the subject which is available in their respective State/UT.
